Exquisite vintage ring in platinum 950

An exceptional piece with classic elegance and a captivating play of colour: this magnificent ring in platinum 950 combines an impressive diamond with numerous sparkling diamonds and luminous sapphires. The polished finish underlines the noble appearance of the platinum and makes the elaborately designed shank look particularly elegant.

At the centre of the ring is a diamond of 0.45 ct, accompanied by 46 further small diamonds with a total of 0.65 ct. The sparkling ensemble is completed by 18 small sapphires with a total weight of 0.60 ct. The intense blue of the sapphires forms a beautiful contrast to the clear, radiant diamonds.
