Elegant vintage ring in platinum 950

A piece full of elegance and special presence: this exquisite ring in platinum 950 combines timeless beauty with a captivating interplay of diamonds and sapphires. The high-polish finish shows off the noble effect of the platinum and the sparkle of the gemstones to particular advantage.

At the centre is a diamond of 0.20 ct, framed by 20 further small diamonds with a total of 0.70 ct. A ring of 13 small sapphires with a total weight of 0.50 ct adds an intense, deep blue accent and gives the ring its characterful, classic look.

The gemstones are bezel-set and pavé set, so that they are harmoniously integrated into the jewellery design and a particularly dense, sparkling appearance is created.
