Wedding rings with fine 24 ct gold flakes

Delicate, exclusive and extraordinary: this elegant pair of wedding rings from Fischer Trauringe combines warm rose gold 750 with a special surface finish of gold flakes made from 24 ct gold.

The fine gold flakes give the rings a unique, lively look and make the warm rose gold appear especially refined. Each pair thereby gains its very own character and becomes an individual symbol of togetherness.

With a width of 4.0 mm, the rings look elegant and pleasantly understated on the finger, perfect for couples who want to combine a special design with a timeless form.
