Timeless, elegant and with a special eye-catcher: this pair of wedding rings by Max Kemper unites fine 750 white gold with a classic, high-gloss polished and rhodium-plated surface. The clear design is stylishly complemented by the fine baguette-cut diamonds in the ladies′ ring.

The ladies′ ring is set with 5 baguette-cut diamonds. The diamonds, with a total of 0.15 ct in G/IF quality, are distinguished by their high clarity and provide an elegant, modern sparkle.

The diamonds are channel-set. This setting integrates the stones harmoniously into the shank and gives the design a particularly clear and straight-lined look.
